Property Description

Classic Mountain Elegance with a Prized Central Location

Grand Timber's central resort location on top of the #1 Ritz-Carlton in North America has glorious ski mountain views from every room. All three bedroom suites-and the entire living area-lead onto a large terrace through sliding French doors, looking onto the core of the iconic ski slopes. An elegant and grand living area is centered around a gorgeous moss stone fireplace which can be enjoyed while you're lounging as well as dining.

LAYOUT: 2,650 sq. ft. of living space; Three ensuite bedrooms/ 3.5 bathrooms (King Master Suite has more than 900 sq. ft. with lounging area and work area, One Queen Room, One Room with Twin Beds).

PRIVATE OUTDOOR TERRACE AND VIEWS: Grand Timber's private outdoor terrace extends nearly the entire length of the Penthouse, with dining space, cocktail tables, and a Lynx gas grill. The central location sits directly above the ski lift, with glorious views of the slopes and ski-mountain bustle, such as live music by the patio's firepit. Each bedroom also leads to the large terrace.

INTERIOR/ART: A classic-elegant ambiance is created through professional Ralph Lauren, Baker, Milling Road and custom made furnishings, along with 9-foot wood ceilings and hardwood floors. A moss stone fireplace is central to the living area with dining on one side and a Great Room on the other. A gourmet kitchen, heated bathroom floors, and State-of-the-art Entertainment System add to the opulence of the Penthouse.

AMENITIES: This esteemed Ritz-Carlton tempts guests to ski, or golf the legendary Beaver Creek terrain in the resort's backyard, and to relax with a drink at Spago, dip in the steaming hot spas, or hand-roast s'mores at the signature campfire. The Great Room and Patio have live music by the fireplace during peak season, and of course, the extravagant Spa and lavish Fitness Facility are over-the-top with the all-season pool and indoor grotto.
